

would like to invite you to our Greater Western Sydney

Parramatta Office Opening

Our Psychological Services Manager, Mr Jason Vella, will be delivering a small presentation on how to manage psychological barriers during a return to work. The presentation will specifically focus on psychological barriers which may adversely affect workers with physical / or psychological injuries when returning to their pre-injury role.

Jason is a registered psychologist who is responsible for Corporate Psychological services at Injury Treatment. He has extensive experience in Occupational Rehabilitation providing return to work services, corporate health, clinical treatment, vocational rehabilitation and EAP services.
